Dear Parents/Guardians,

Recently you would have received your copy of the small booklet “God is with us: A prayer book for families”. This is a beautiful publication presenting some of the traditional prayers of our faith for your use at home or when travelling. I hope that this encourages family prayer in your home; to ask for God’s blessing; to offer thanks for all that we have and to ask for forgiveness. Pray for peace.

This week we held our Academic Assembly to recognise the excellent performance of our students throughout Semester 1. What a pleasure it was to see so many parents and other family members in attendance. Please find with this newsletter a summary of the major award winners. These students are leading the way for the whole College. Congratulations to all concerned.

If you have a spare moment pray for all the young people gathered in Rio for World Youth Day. We pray especially for the pilgrims from Bede, Olivia Conolly, Nicola Claravall and Jake Bayssari.

God Bless

Kevin Jones

Tim Flannery Award
- Lauren Brouwer Year 10
Year 7 has been looking at the Bede Polding College “No Bullying” initiative during Term 2. The students were explained a variety of ways that bullying could occur in the school environment, through the use of technology and different scenarios. The main theme throughout the presentation was that students need to communicate to someone, parents or teachers, if at any point they felt as though they were being bullied. Through communicating this information to somebody students understood that support could then be given to allow them to feel safe. Students also learnt that the school has a no bullying email address where they could write their concerns which would then be addressed by the school.

To support our school policy, all Year 7 students spent a pastoral period designing and creating a “No Bullying” poster. Students could hand draw, or create a digital image, to express our “No Bullying” policy. The completed posters were entered into a “No Bullying” poster competition, judged by the Art Department and the Principal. The winning entry will be printed and placed around the College, joining previous year’s winners.

The winning entry for 2013 is Katherine Gurney of 7D7 (see above)

Year 7 will continue to look at different types of bullying behaviours that are not tolerated at the College throughout Term 3.
